

Sammlung Goetz: Works of Arte Povera and Mike Kelley

MARCH 9 - DECEMBER 31, 2003 | WESERBURG | MUSEUM FÜR MODERNE KUNST, BREMEN

This new presentation in Bremen presents works of Arte Povera and American artist Mike Kelley – two main areas of the Sammlung Goetz holdings – for an extended period of time.

In 1997, the Neues Museum Weserburg held a major exhibition with important works of Arte Povera from Sammlung Goetz. This was the first time that works from this genre had ever been shown in Northern Germany. Thanks to this long- standing collaboration, a new opportunity allows parts of this collection to be rediscovered in other contexts.
