

Nathalie Djurberg Open- Air Finale

FRIDAY, JULY 17, 2015, 7 UNTIL 10 PM | GOETZ COLLECTION

-

At the end of the exhibition, the Goetz Collection invites you to a screening of Nathalie Djurberg's films from Part 1 and 2 of the film program. The event will take place in good weather in the collection's garden.

Sexual temptation and cruel violence collide in the videos and installations by Nathalie Djurberg. With her clay figures, she stages nightmarish stories. Throughout the course of the exhibition, the Goetz Collection has presented eight of the artist's films in a two- part film program in Base 103.

At the end of the exhibition, the Goetz Collection invites you to a screening of this work. With a drink together in the garden and discussions with Susanne Touw and Cornelia Gockel, both curators of the Goetz Collection, we want to wind down the show. In the event of bad weather, the event will take place inside.

Sign up for open- air finale here (Open Air Finale, 7/17/2015). Participation is free.